Principal's Report

Winthrop Avenue principal: Sally Curto

- Winter concert was great
- Thanks to PTA- the holiday boutique was very good!
- 4th grade had a visit from electromagnet man and 3rd grade began Circle of Dance cultural dances
- Star Polishers welcomed Plainview teachers to view the leadership roles and principles in place in our building.
- Thank you to The Chess Club- its been great!!
- Think Win-win is focusing on compromise and implementing win-win Wednesday.
- Upcoming for the 4th grade is Journeys into Native American Territory
- The Don't Press Send parent seminar at Reinhard is coming up on 1/28 at 7pm.

Reinhard principal: Patricia Castine

- Thank you to the Health and Safety Committee for "hand-washing" presentations.
- Thank you for the holiday boutique- the kids really enjoy it!!
- Also, focusing on think win-win, the kids at this age are very egocentric, but we are starting to move towards compromise.
- We also hosted a Summer Leadership Conference, 8 administrators came to learn how we implement the leadership principles in our buildings.
- We had an awesome 1st grade holiday concert and the 2nd grade is upcoming on January 31.
- Parp is a nautical theme this year. I want to thank everyone for their hard work. January 30 is literacy night.
- Chess club has lots of kids, we even expanded into more rooms to accommodate everyone.
- Also, doing a food drive for SAC.

Shore Road Principal: Mrs. Matthews

- Focus right now is on organization and study skills.
- Focusing on think win-win, how to reach your goal after conflict and to really think about your relationships.
- We are working on digital tours around our building. The kids are learning coding and creating animation.
- On Dec 6, the 6th grade talent show was great!
- Also music dept visited NUMC spreading holiday cheer.
- SAC = kindness month
- Thank you PTA for both the boutique and the chess club.
- Upcoming 1/14 is the 5th grade science fair, 1/15 6th grade yearbook photos, 1/23 concert at Grand Avenue, 1/24 pta bingo, yoga begins 1/27
- Health and Safety also begins on 1/27
